

Practical Tips for Starting a Nellie Edge Read and Sing Book Club™

Well-Loved Song Picture Books Make Up Our First Home-to-School Family Literacy Connection

Download form from Read & Sing tab at nellieedge.com.

Please cover each Guided Reading book with clear contact paper for durability as these books will be well used!

- You can still use the black and white Little Books that accompany each Nellie Edge Read and Sing Big Book™ for family literacy; however, with the full-color books, families are more enticed to enjoy a relaxed and joyful family time together.
- A collection of 14 Read and Sing titles is now available as guided reading sets: Choose the titles your children love singing and reading the most.

- Download book envelope cover and see sample parent letter and articles designed to coach parents in supporting the learning-to-read process. See Read & Sing tab at nellieedge.com for details.
- Our goal is to simultaneously build language and literacy skills for diverse learners: All children are English language learners!
- We want to support parents in establishing a nightly reading time at home, now and for the next many years!
- The special home-to-school padded recording envelopes for Nellie Edge Read and Sing Books make it simple for children to bring their books back to class. They then get to choose another favorite Read and Sing book to bring home.

Trim the cover page and tape it to a #2 size padded shipping envelope. The envelopes are less expensive bought by the case from a packing supply company.
