

Books and Poems for Open House

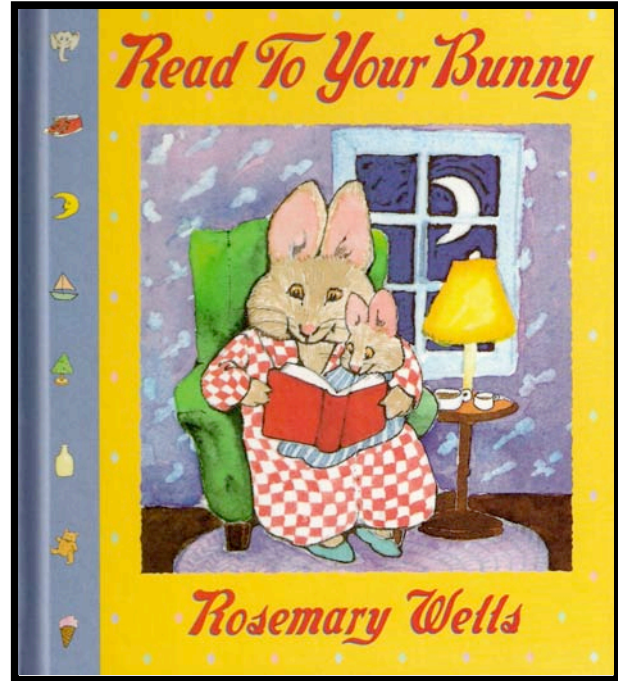

Read to Your Bunny

by Rosemary Wells

Read to your bunny often,
It's 20 minutes of fun...

Consider reading this delightful book to families at open house: Read to Your Bunny, by Rosemary Wells. Scholastic, 1997.

Share the important message: "If you keep reading to your children every night, soon they will begin reading to you."

Remind parents: Reading together at least 20 minutes a day is one of the most important literacy gifts you can give to your child.

Have a large basket of shiny apples for parents at your fall open house. Attach a copy of this poem.

Apple Poem for Parents

adapted by Nellie Edge

Here's an apple for you parents,
Parents are teachers too.
And parents – you're our partners,
Thank you for all you do.
