

New Website & Bookstore

With a great sense of excitement and anticipation we are building a new bookstore and website as we prepare to launch Nellie Edge Online Seminars!

What WILL Be Available?

We will continue developing a more user-friendly website and beautiful new Bookstore scheduled to open Spring, 2016.

We will continue to offer our Kindergarten Writing and the Common Core program, high-frequency word stamps, Kindergarten-Friendly Handwriting, Sing, Sign, Spell, and Read!, and our cookbooks.

We will begin offering Nellie Edge Online Seminars.

We will make a growing collection of our resources available on Teachers Pay Teachers (TpT).

We will continue expanding our beautiful, detailed blogs and practical Pinterest boards.

We will continue to make all of our Members Only free items available at nellieedge.com and some will also be at TpT. One exception: Fingerplay Little Books will soon move to TpT at very affordable prices.

What Won't Be Available?

Nellie Edge Read and Sing Big Books, Guided Reading, and resource manuals will NOT be available again until Spring 2016.

To Answer Questions You've Asked:

Yes, our monthly newsletters will continue through our restructuring and beyond!

The Free poetry that you enjoy will still be available. Nellie Edge Poetry Anthology collections will be on TpT, affordable and easy to access.

For Salem-Keizer teachers, YES! We will continue to offer very special scholarship rates to our ongoing professional development seminars and workshops! District administrators will have the scholarship code.
